Due specific mooring conditions and requirements in some Croatian ports, Katarina Line ships are moored side by side, making it necessary for the clients to cross from one ship to another with gaps in between ships in order to get to the shore. In such cases clients need to take special care when crossing and do this at their own risk. Crew assistance will be given to those needing and requesting it.

Art. 3.5. Ship Rules

Passengers on board are obliged to abide to the ship rules, as captain is responsible for the safety of all passengers and the crew. Captain has the right to change the itinerary in case of bad weather or similar inappropriate conditions in ports to ensure safety on board.

Passports are to be handed to the captain for registration on the first day of the cruise.

Jumping or diving from the boat during navigation is strictly forbidden. For safety reasons climbing on the masts is also forbidden.

During rough weather movement should be done with care and as little as possible. The floors can often be wet and slippery. Passengers should take extra care crossing between the boats when they are docked together in port. Do not hesitate to ask a crew member for assistance when crossing. Movement between the ships is at the individual's responsibility.

Safety jackets are placed under the seats in the dining area or below the bunks in the cabins.

As the ships are explicitly acoustic passengers are asked to behave accordingly. Special attention must be given to night peace onboard, which officially is at midnight. In National Parks even earlier night peace is required and guests will be notified of this.

Clients are responsible for looking after their personal belongings whilst travelling. The Operator cannot be held responsible for any personal belongings left behind or damaged on any trip irrespective of the circumstances

Smoking in the restaurant area and in the cabins is not allowed and when smoking on the designated area passengers must not throw cigarette butts in the sea.

Bed linen must not be taken out of the cabins.

The only exceptions are: personal care products, liquid medicine, food products specifically for infants and food products for special diets. Typical regional products purchased during visits to the ports will be stored on board to be returned to passengers at the end of the cruise.

Please take special attention not to throw anything into toilets except toilette paper.

Guests are obliged to respect meal times on board, which are placed on the board in the salon, as well as departure times to next port.

Any damage must be compensated to the captain by the passenger. Lost cabin keys will be charged 150 kuna/key.

It is strictly forbidden to throw rubbish into the sea.

Water is scarce on every boat, therefore please be very rational with it. The same applies to the electricity which runs on the generator.

Guests must close portholes in cabins under deck during navigation (if applicable), to avoid their cabins getting wet by the sea water entering cabin through the porthole.

The captain and the crew will be available for any questions or queries and will do their best to make your stay on board a most pleasurable one. If captain and his crew are not providing satisfactory service, please contact our office for further help, as our aim is to make you satisfied during your stay onboard.

Service charge is not included in the price and therefore please tip at your own discretion.
